SUPPORTING QUOTES

- Sharan Hildebrand, Director of Business Development at Capax
“This is not a typical technology seminar. We want to give the participants a hands-on experience, an opportunity to explore technology solutions in an interactive workshop and to leave with actionable, meaningful plans for improving their business with technology. Working on this with rripl and the i.c.Stars team helps open more opportunities for our up-and-coming IT leaders of the future, and I'm proud to participate.”
- Marcus D. Cobb, Principal and Chief Software Architect
“I am thrilled to join Sharan and the Capax Global team, to help support this exciting event for i.c.Stars alumni. Helping to relate technology to business - and to people - is one of my passions, and part of what drives the continued success of rripl Software. Sharing this with other talented people in the i.c.Stars community is exciting.”
